A close-up photograph of two golden-brown, fried pastries, likely simit or a similar traditional Turkish bread. Each pastry is topped with a generous dollop of white butter. The pastry on the left is also sprinkled with white shredded coconut. The pastry on the right is topped with a layer of brown sugar granules. The pastries are set against a light-colored, textured background. A small sprig of green mint leaves is visible in the upper left, and another small green leaf is near the bottom right. A large, stylized, light brown letter 'G' is overlaid on the image, with the text 'Tatlilar / Deserts' written in white within its central horizontal bar.
